

Master of Science (MSc) Program in Financial Analysis

Director of MBA/EMBA/MSc Programs:

Steven J. DEKREY, Adjunct Professor of Management

Academic Director:

John K. C. WEI, Chair Professor of Finance

Associate Director:

Mark SEASHOLES, Associate Professor of Finance

The Master of Science (MSc) program in Financial Analysis is designed to provide rigorous training to students for professional careers in the finance industry. The curriculum is structured to meet the growing and specialized demands of the industry. It begins with a solid foundation in accounting, economics, quantitative and computing skills, asset valuation and financial derivatives, which form the core subjects in the Chartered Financial Analysts (CFA) examinations curriculum. Students can then build on top of this broad knowledge base by choosing advanced courses and specialized electives that lead to concentration in Corporate Finance or Security Analysis.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must possess a first degree with second class honors or above from a university or a recognized institution, or possess equivalent professional qualifications, and a satisfactory GMAT score. They may be asked to attend an interview. Work experience is preferred.

Program Duration

The program can be completed in part-time mode in 18-24 months.

Program Fee

The program fee for the 2011-12 intake is HK$5,800 per credit. The program fee is payable in installments according to a payment schedule announced at the program website.

Curriculum

Students are required to complete 30 credits of coursework as follows:

1. Core courses: 12 credits

ACCT	5150	Accounting Foundations
