

Part-time MBA Program in Shenzhen

Director of MBA/EMBA/MSc Programs:

Steven J. DEKREY, Adjunct Professor of Management

With China's accession to WTO, her economy is expanding and business activities are growing rapidly. There is booming demand for advanced management education as executives in middle management now face new challenges due to intense competitions, and more business opportunities due to increased foreign investment.

Currently there are few opportunities in China for quality management education, an English MBA program in particular. This part-time MBA program offered in Shenzhen aims at serving the needs of mid-career executives with solid work experience.

Offering the program in Shenzhen will take advantage of the executive teaching facilities at the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Industrial, Education and Research Institution co-sponsored by HKUST. Classes will meet on Saturdays. All courses will be taught by HKUST faculty in English. Students will be awarded a Master of Business Administration degree by HKUST upon satisfactory completion of the program.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements are the same as those of the part-time MBA program offered in Hong Kong.

Program Duration

It normally takes 24 months to complete this part-time program.

Program Fee

The program fee for 2011-12 intake is HK$301,500 for the entire program.

Curriculum

Students are required to complete a total of 45 credits. The required courses that take up 28 credits will be the same as those of the part-time MBA program in Hong Kong. 17 credits of advanced courses, which aim to develop additional expertise in different business areas, will be selected according to the needs of executives in China. Students from the Shenzhen program will join part-time MBA students for the residential program conducted in Hong Kong.

Graduation Requirements

Students must complete the program with a graduation grade average (GGA) of a 2.850 or above as required of all postgraduate students at the University.