Graduate Teaching Assistant Training for Full-time RPg students

Part I
10-hour mandatory training course by CEI
- Designed to acquaint students with the required knowledge and skills to begin teaching in higher education

Part II
GTA duties assigned by the depts/divisions including
- MPhil: min 30-min instructional delivery x 1 term
- PhD: min 30-min instructional delivery x 2 terms

- Satisfactory completion of the training offered by CEI is a pre-requisite for students to be assigned GTA duties.

Mandatory, non-credit bearing
Graduate Teaching Assistant Training for Full-time RPg students

10-hour session by CEI:
- comprises five modules
- Assessment criteria:
  i) attendance;
  ii) online activities; and
  iii) 10 to 15 mins micro-teaching session

Note: Graduates of GTA Training Program may apply for exemption from taking the 10-hour session under PDEV6800

http://cei.ust.hk/research-postgraduates/pdev6800

GTA Training
• 10-hour mandatory session, by CEI

Complete satisfactorily & pass CEI assessment

GTA Duties
• assigned by Dept/Division
• MPhil: min 30-min instructional delivery x 1 term
• PhD: min 30-min instructional delivery x 2 terms

Pass assessment on 30-min delivery
(MPhil x 1 term, PhD x 2 terms)

30-min instructional delivery:
• in front of a group of UG/PG students
• Form: Lecture / tutorial / lab session / seminar
• Assessment: Graded by faculty instructor’s feedback, student evaluation, and other criteria if deemed appropriate by respective School/IPO
• Student evaluation:
  • Schools: standard Student Feedback Questionnaire (SFQ)
  • IPO: tailor-made questionnaire
  • Encouraged to be done right after the 30-min delivery

Aggregated passing grade (P/F) in transcript