

Part-time MBA Program in Shenzhen

Program Director:

To be advised

With China's accession to WTO, her economy is expanding and business activities are growing rapidly. There is booming demand for advanced management education as executives in middle management now face new challenges due to intense competitions, and more business opportunities due to increased foreign investment.

Currently there are few opportunities in China for quality management education, an English MBA program in particular. This part-time MBA program offered in Shenzhen aims at serving the needs of mid-career executives with solid work experience.

Offering the program in Shenzhen will take advantage of the executive teaching facilities at the HKUST IER Building in Shenzhen. Classes will meet on Saturdays. Courses will be taught by HKUST faculty in English. The program has also entered into a collaboration with Peking University to offer some electives by top faculty from Peking University HSBC Business School to extend the China content.

Students will be awarded a Master of Business Administration degree by HKUST upon satisfactory completion of the program.
